

Can I Stop Someone from Tagging Me?

If you don't want to be tagged by someone (or by anyone at all), you can manage your Tagging Preferences easily.

Yes, you can control who tags you in their moments on Currently — because your comfort and privacy come first.

How to Manage Tag Permissions

1. Open the Currently app
2. Go to your Profile
3. Tap the Settings icon (top right)
4. Select Privacy Settings
5. Tap Tagging or Mentions & Tags
6. Choose your preferred tag control:

Option	What It Does
Everyone (default)	Anyone can tag you in a moment
Followers Only	Only people you follow or who follow you can tag you
No One	Completely blocks all tags from any user

Changes take effect immediately and apply to all future tags.

How to Remove Yourself from a Tag

Already tagged in a moment you don't want to be part of?

1. Tap on the moment where you're tagged
2. Tap the ':' menu → Select Remove Tag
3. Confirm to untag yourself — the moment remains, but your name is removed

How to Stop a Specific Person from Tagging You

If one person keeps tagging you and it's unwanted:

- Option 1: Block Them

- o Go to their profile → ':' → Block
- o They'll no longer be able to tag, follow, or message you

- Option 2: Report the Moment or User

- o Tap : on the moment → Report Tag Abuse or Harassment

Summary

Action	What It Does
Adjust Tag Settings	Choose who can tag you: Everyone, Followers, or No One
Remove Yourself from a Tag	Untag yourself from any moment you've been added to
Block or Report a User	Stop specific people from tagging or interacting

Your Tags. Your Terms.

Currently is about real connections, but those should always be respectful and mutual. You decide who gets to include you in their story.
