

How Do I Follow Someone on Currently?

It's a great way to build your social circle, discover authentic people, and stay in the loop.

Following someone on Currently lets you stay connected with their real-time life. You'll see their moments in your feed and get to explore their vibe — without receiving instant notifications like a subscriber would.

How to Follow Someone

You can follow anyone who has a public or followable profile. Here's how:

Option 1: From Search

1. Tap the Search icon
2. Type the name or username of the person
3. Tap on their profile from the results
4. Tap the “Follow” button on their profile

Option 2: From a Moment

1. See a moment in your Feed, Discover, or on the Map
2. Tap the person's username or profile photo
3. On their profile, tap “Follow”

What Happens When You Follow Someone?

- ☐ Their moments appear in your feed
- ☐ You can view their past and current updates
- ☐ You'll see their check-ins, activities, and captions
- ☐ No notification is sent to them unless they check their followers list

If you want instant alerts every time they post, consider tapping “Subscribe” instead.

Want to Unfollow Someone?

You can unfollow anyone at any time:

- Go to their profile

- Tap the “Following” button — it will switch back to “Follow”

No notification is sent when you unfollow.
