

Can I Delete or Deactivate My Account Permanently?

Yes — you control your space on Currently. Whether you're taking a break or leaving for good deactivate or permanently delete your account.

1. Deactivate (Take a Break)

Use this option if you want a timeout but plan to come back later:

1. Go to Profile → Settings
2. Tap Account
3. Select Deactivate Account
4. Confirm your choice

What happens:

- ☐ Your profile, moments, comments, and history will be hidden from others
- ☐ Metadata (e.g., username, profile info) will be preserved
- ☐ You can reactivate immediately by logging back in

This is a good option if you're stepping away without losing your footprint.

2. Delete Account Permanently

Ready to say goodbye? Follow the steps to erase your presence:

1. Go to Profile → Settings
2. Tap Account → Delete Account
3. Review the warning message (deletions are final)
4. Confirm by entering your password or verification code (email/SMS)

What happens:

- ☐ Your account, moments, comments, and data are irrevocably deleted
- ☐ Your username becomes available for others
- ☐ You'll need to sign up again if you wish to return

What's The Difference?

Option	Profile Hidden	Data Deleted Permanently	Can Come Back?
Deactivate	Hidden	No (data preserved)	Yes, anytime
Delete	Hidden	Yes	No (must create new account)

Additional Notes

- Deletion is permanent and irreversible — make sure to download anything you want to keep before proceeding
- Want help at any step? Our Support Team is available 24/7
- If you're just taking a break, try Deactivate — it's quick and easy to reverse

Summary

- Use Deactivate to pause your presence — easy to resume
- Use Delete Account to remove everything forever
- Both options are available in Settings → Account
