

What Are Mutuals and How Do They Work?

Mutuals on Currently are users who follow each other back. It’s a two-way connection — a simple way to know, “Hey, we both care about what the other is doing right now.”

What Makes Someone a Mutual?

A user becomes your Mutual when:

- 1. You follow them
- 2. They follow you back

That’s it — once the follow is mutual, you’ll both be listed under each other’s Mutuals tab.

Where Can I See My Mutuals?

- 1. Go to your Profile
- 2. Tap on your Followers or Following count
- 3. Switch to the “Mutuals” tab

You’ll see a list of all the people you follow who also follow you back.

What Can Mutuals Do?

Mutuals unlock stronger social interactions:

Feature	Available Between Mutuals?
Direct Chat	Yes
Moment Reactions & Comments	More personal and visible
Profile Discovery	Appear in suggestions more often

Notifications	See each other's moments faster
---------------	---------------------------------

How to Remove a Mutual

To remove someone from your Mutuals:

- Either unfollow them
- Or if they unfollow you — the mutual link breaks automatically
- You'll both move back to single-sided followers (or none)

Mutuals are dynamic and update in real time.

Summary

Action	Result
You follow + they follow	You both become Mutuals
Mutuals tab	Shows all users with a two-way connection
Unfollow either side	Ends the mutual relationship

Mutuals are a great way to build real, engaging, and trusted connections on Currently — like digital handshakes that say, "I see you too."
